

a murder mystery evening

Here's an outline of a typical Smoke & Mirrors evening event. It's based around a three-course meal, but we're more than happy to fit in with whatever suits you best. All timings are flexible, and all sorts of variations on this basic structure are possible – lunchtime events, full weekends, special themes, different locations, and indeed anything else you can think of.

- ✚ 7.30pm – guests assembled in venue of your choice; actors arrive in character and start mingling
- ✚ 7.40pm – brief MC speech sets the scene; all guests have programmes with background info & clues
- ✚ throughout the event – scenes take place between the actors and the audience are invited to eavesdrop; actors always in character and can be quizzed by guests at any time
- ✚ 8.00pm – starter served; more scenes follow
- ✚ 8.30pm – main course served; more scenes follow
- ✚ 9.00pm – pudding served; a murder occurs
- ✚ 9.30pm – audience interrogate suspects
- ✚ 9.45pm – audience try to work out “whodunnit”
- ✚ 10.00pm – perpetrator revealed; champagne prize for winner(s)
- ✚ 10.15pm – event concludes
